

Workshop for learning disaster risk prevention together with International students

Do you know what risks are after disaster?

What should you prepare for coming disasters?

Have you ever seen these signs?

Do you know what they means?

Let's think about them and make up proper ideas together !

Date and Time : June , 4th, 2017(Sun) 13:00-16:00

Venue : Hyogo International House 1F G-Navi Commons

Participation is free of charge

(Address : 1-2-8 Wakihama-cho Chuo-ku Kobe, Hyogo)

(5 min, walk from JR Nada station/ 3 min, walk from Hanshin Iwaya station)

Language : Japanese (Some parts will be translated into English)

Program : 12:30 Reception
13:00 Workshop (3 hours)
16:00 Closing time

Who can participate? : ①International students who are interested in disaster risk prevention in Japan or in your home country.

(Intermediate level Japanese is required.)

②Japanese students who are interested in international cooperation and disaster risk prevention.

Organizer : Global Nada Village Project Council (G-Navi Council)
(The Consortium of Universities in Hyogo)

Collaborator : The College of Nursing Art and Science, University of Hyogo
Disaster Nursing Global Leader Degree Program

How to apply : Visit the website of the Consortium of Universities in Hyogo and fill in the event application form.

http://www.consortium-hyogo.com/workshop_170604/

Application via this QR code below is available ↓

Quota : 20 students (First 20 arrivals are only accepted)

Inquiries : The Consortium of Universities in Hyogo
(Ms. Nakamizu, Ms. Hisaka)

Mail : g-navi@consortium-hyogo.jp Tel : 078-271-0233

